

Ameris Bank Commits $10 Million To Support Eligible First-Time Homebuyers

ATLANTA, Aug. 16, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- Ameris Bank today announced the Ameris Down Payment Grant Program, committing $10 million in grants over the next three years to eligible first-time homebuyers for down payment and closing cost assistance.

"Especially given today's tough housing market, the objective of this program is to reduce barriers to homeownership and strengthen communities," said Palmer Proctor, CEO of Ameris Bank. "This program will provide hundreds of low-to-moderate income homebuyers in underserved communities, including minority communities, with funding and education assistance to help them achieve homeownership."

The Ameris Down Payment Grant Program:

- Provides qualified borrowers up to $12,500 in forgivable grants to use toward down payment and closing costs
- May be combined with other federal, state and local grant programs
- Includes homebuyer education to help first-time buyers prepare for the step of homeownership
